Professional Experience:

Center for People With Disabilities Independent Living Specialist
October 2002 to present
1675 Range Street Boulder CO 80301 (303) 442-8662

I assist people with disabilities to live independently in our community, especially people with significant disabilities moving from an institutional setting into their own home. I work one-on-one with people and organize individuals to advance civil rights for people with disabilities. I develop and curate the CPWD website: www.cpwd.org. I coordinate the City of Boulder Home Modification grant.

I edit and produce the ADAPT Action Report that provides photographs, commentary and news from the national ADAPT Actions www.adapt.org/freeourpeople/aar/.

I edit and produce the MCIL Journal for the Memphis Center for Independent Living www.mcil.org.

Free Our People March Coordinator
January to September 2003

I was one of 19 volunteer National Coordinators for the Free Our People March. My specific duties were to raise money for the march, produce and manage the www.FreeOurPeople.org website and produce Internet related media for the march.

The Memphis Center for Independent Living Systems Advocate
May 1996 to October 2002
1633 Madison Avenue, Memphis, TN 38104 (901) 726-6404

As Systems Advocate I supported, planned and coordinated media and civic events to advance the philosophy of independent living. I produced and edited the quarterly newsletter, The Declaration! I coordinated the RAMP It Up! program and managed volunteer labor that built over 30 wheelchair access ramps. I provided technical assistance on the 1990 Americans with Disabilities Act and reported to the state ADA Southeast Disability and Business Technical Assistance Center project coordinator.

I produced the MCIL Rental Housing Accessibility Survey that examined 2899 covered units that identified over 1700 barriers in newly constructed apartments.
